

State Fair Will Give Demonstration In Pig Feeding

Five Lots of Pigs Will Be Exhibited, Showing Effect of Different Foods. Experiments, Begun June 17, Will Be Closed During Fair.

LOT NO. 3

LOT NO. 2

LOTS NO. 1 AND 5.
Lots No. 1 and 5, where the test was for the type of hog, as the feed had been a balanced ration and bluegrass pasture for both lots until July 10, when the last weighing was made. Four of these pigs were scrubs, the other four pure bred Black Berkshires. By referring to the table which is printed on this page it will be seen that the gain in weight by the Berkshires was greater and that the cost per pound for the gain was less. On July 22 both of these lots were turned upon a new pasture which consisted of drilled sorghum, about knee high and Dwarf Essex rape. A photograph was taken of these eight pigs busy at work on this new pasture, which they seemed to enjoy greatly.

LOT NO. 4.
Lot No. 4, which consisted of four pigs of a common type, neither blue bloods nor scrubs, were being fed corn and allowed the run of a strip of bluegrass pasture. A glance at the table will show that their gain was not at all satisfactory and that the cost per pound was excessive. This was especially strange, as these four pigs were not doing so well as the same type of pigs in No. 2, which were fed corn and kept in a small dry lot. The probable explanation of this unusual state of affairs is that the blue grass pasture with the dry weather had got to a point early in the season when it did not make real pig feed, and the run of the pasture allowed the hogs too much space in which to hunt for something more palatable than corn three times a day.

LOTS NO. 2 AND 3.
The picture which heads this story is extremely interesting because it shows the eight pigs comprising lots No. 2 and 3. In lot No. 2 it will be noticed that the pigs appear narrower and rather "leggy," while those in lot No.

3 are broad and are "getting close to the ground." A glance will show that lot No. 2 had nothing but corn, while those in lot No. 3 were fed a carefully balanced ration of ten parts wheat middlings, ten parts cornmeal, two parts bran and one part tankage.

Futurist.
The teacher had just read the myth about Perseus and Medusa. She wished to stimulate the imagination of her youngsters and asked them to describe the hero as they pictured him. One little girl wrote: "Perseus was tall and stately with a black waxy mustache and wore a monolog over his left eye."

C. M. SHANNON

Publisher Richmond "Coaster" Waco, Texas, says that Grigby's Liv-Ver-Lax cured him. Read his statement.

Most people of sedentary occupation such as Editors, Bookkeepers, office employees, stenographers and others who spend their lives indoors are more subject to the ravages of malaria than those who take a large amount of exercises out of doors.

Mr. Shannon devotes much of his time to writing and was a great sufferer from bilious headaches until he took Liv-Ver-Lax.

On his own statement, this renowned remedy cured him, just as surely as it will cure you of Constipation or other malarial symptoms. These symptoms are the signals ahead of serious complications if not eliminated.

There is no compromise with malaria. You must get it or it will get you. The ounce of prevention in the form of Liv-Ver-Lax may save even your life from Malaria, from which nearly every one in this climate suffers in a greater or less degree, develops rapidly when it once gets a hold on your system. Why Do They Do This?

Miss Primp (who is forty-one)—"Yes, I was thirty only last week. Think of it!" The Caller (aged thirty-seven, with charming insincerity)—"Dear me. I couldn't have guessed you were more than four years my senior. I will be twenty-five next month."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS

Because It's For One Thing Only, and Hopkinsville People Appreciate This.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for one thing only. For weak or disordered kidneys. Here is Hopkinsville evidence to prove their worth.

Miss L. A. Hester, Fifteenth & Clay Sts., Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "The pain in my back, caused by disordered kidneys, was so severe some days that I often felt like lying down. If I walked any distance or exerted myself in any way, I was troubled most and if I caught cold, it made me miserable. In the morning, I felt stiff and sore and often found it hard to dress. Kidney weakness bothered me. I doctored but found little relief. Finally, Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I got a box. They removed the pains in my back and the other kidney ailments left."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss Hester had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. Advertisement.

Ghastly Custom.

The medical profession has succeeded in doing away with a revolting custom that has prevailed in Constantinople for almost a century. In 1827 the authorities discovered that the Greeks were in the habit of smuggling in large quantities of arms and ammunition in closed coffins. They therefore ordered that thenceforward coffins containing the corpses of Greeks should be borne lidless through the streets and only sealed after entering the cemetery. Since that time the Greeks have attempted by painting the faces of the dead and resorting to other crude devices, to render the procedure less ghastly. They have also agitated, from time to time, for the abolition of the custom, but made no impression upon the Ottoman government until the local doctors came to their aid. The recent funeral of Constantine V, patriarch of the Greek church, furnished a test case. After an acrimonious debate, it was decided that the coffin should be closed and the custom abolished.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ills it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E.
